WAGNER'S SIEGFRIED HEARD ONCE MORE

Scherzo of His Tetralogy Has First Performance This Season.

CAST OF EXCELLENCE

Mme. Gadski and Mr. Burrian as the Two Volsung Forest Lovers.

aner's "Siegfried" had its first peronce of the season at the Metroin Opera House last evening. To delightful scherzo of the tetralogy ally accorded one or two performes before it takes its logical place the full presentation of "Der Ring Nibelungen." These sporadic offerthe drama do not call for depreremarks, as they did in earlier when the fourfold tragedy was h less familiar than it is now. In days operagoers could hardly be spected to take up the thread of the story at any point without losing it gain very quickly. But in these days the case is different. Those who are interested in the Wagperian drama at all are able to plunge in medias res" without hesitation or onfusion. Others naturally do not te whether they know what is going or not. Thus all parties are satisd, and the only grumblers are those who are inexorable in their pleadings for the entity of art works at all times and in all places.

These grumblers, it must be confessed, have some fairly solid ground on which to stand. But in a polygiot pera house where the repertory has be so varied as it is at the Metroitan numerous presentations of the entire "Ring" are not practicable, and fried" all by itself than only once in the

There were no new impersonations to call for extended descripton. Mme. Gadski was the Brunnhilde, and as ery one knows. Wagner's sleeping beauty is not awakened by the kiss of a Volsung prince until a very late Miss Sparkes as the Forest Bird entributed the only other feminine es to the evening's joys, but she made no appearance on the scene. Youth ad spirit have to be depicted by the representation of Siegiried, who last tening was Carl Burrian, fortunately a such excellent vocal condition that he as able to do full justice to the music in Putnam Griswold there was a digfied and sonorous Wotan, while Gorliz was a very black Alberich ined, and Mr. Relss the same incomisly through his megaphone the few
